"While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the slaves of corruption." (II Peter 2:19)

There is much said today about equal rights. Human bondage is a subject which has been challenging man since Abraham, Joseph and Moses. Freedom and liberty are words of the New Testament brought into new light when Jesus taught that true freedom is a gift of God above. "If you continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free. . .If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed." (John 8:31,32,36) St. Paul tells us in II Cor. 3:17: "Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty." He also speaks of "the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free". (Gal. 5:13) There is the perfect law of liberty—and the law of our new being in Christ (the law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus). (James 1:25, Romans 2:1)

Is the new freedom today truly liberation or the entering into new and treacherous, insidious forms of bondage? True liberty is a quality only of God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. How then can "liberated" women speak of gaining equal rights through political maneuvers and joining forces with other dissidents (homosexuals, political ultra-liberals, free-sell advocates, abortionists) to which end they ignore and castigate the forces of morality and righteousness? Ways of correcting inequities are provided in the laws of our Nation and its Constitution.

So-called freedom of sexual expression has resulted in fantastically increased abortion rates, divorce, venereal disease statistics, crimes of violence, including rape; decreased birth-rate and an exhausted supply of adoptable children. There is also increased drug use and alcoholism. All of these things are tied together. As the restraints of vital Christianity have been severed one by one the problems of our Nation have mounted yearly. Only righteousness exalts a nation. God is the author of prosperity and wholeness. He alone by His Spirit sets men free.

Freedom and Human Rights can never be produced by Helsinki agreements. Proclaiming Human Rights the Helsinki agreement succeeded only in placing millions in eastern Europe under totalitarian bondage and hopelessness. Now we talk of Human Rights but are bent upon allowing Russian armaments carried by Cuban troops fresh from the carnage of Angola and Zaire to go onward into Rhodesia and South Africa. Since the abdication of Christian principles at the recall of Douglas MacArthur from Korea, the United States has increasingly allowed the world to be Sovietized. This has not only happened in Viet Nam, Laos, and Cambodia but has occurred in church, school, home, politics, and every phase of American life.

Has not the time come for true Christian unity, for American (and Canadian) men to stand, for the laity to Rebel, for women to opt for holiness under God, for youth to reject the bondage of devils, drugs and debauchery? "Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day and having done all to stand." (Eph. 6:13) WSR
