"Men, what is it necessary for me to do that I may be saved?" This is the question posed to Paul and Silas by the distraught Philippian jailer. It echoes the question shouted at Peter by the Jews and the residents of Jerusalem (men of Israel) on the day of Pentecost. The question also is similar to the one asked the Lord Jesus, "What good deed must I do to possess eternal life?" Jesus tells this man of "great possessions" to continually keep the commandments. Upon being told that he had observed the commandments from his youth, Jesus answered him, "If you would be perfect (have spiritual maturity), go and sell what you have and give to the poor, and you will have riches in heaven; and come, be my disciple and follow me." (Matthew 19:16-23). Peter's answer is similar. Under the anointing of the Holy Spirit he gives the men of Israel the way to accomplish what Jesus offered the rich young ruler. "Repent and be baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ for the forgiveness and release from your sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit." Paul says to the Philippian jailer in answer to his plea, "Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, that is give yourself up to Him, take yourself out of your own keeping and entrust yourself into His keeping and you will be saved; (and this applies both to you and your household as well). And they declared the Word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. And he took them the same hour of the night and bathed them because of their bloody wounds, and he was baptized immediately and all the members of his household." (Acts 16:31-33). Peter's and Paul's admonitions are again stated by the "Alpha and the Omega" to the assembly at Ephesus and to all who have been possessors of the Holy Spirit: "Remember then from what heights you have fallen. Repent--change the inner man to meet God's will--and do the works you did previously when you first knew the Lord." (Revelation 2:5)

Today man is asking on every side, "What shall we do?" Our times would strikingly appear to fit Paul's description of the last days in his letter to Timothy (II Tim. 3:1). "In the last days there will set in perilous times of great stress and trouble--hard to deal with and hard to bear." Paul also tells of a time like ours in II Thess. 2:10-12 describing: "unlimited seduction to evil and wicked deception for those who are going to perdition, perishing--because they did not welcome the Truth but refused to love it that they might be saved. Therefore, God sends upon them a misleading influence, a working of error and a strong delusion to make them believe what is false, in order that all may be judged and condemned who did not believe, but instead took pleasure in unrighteousness." This is a time of great unrighteousness and stress. Letters from missionaries tell of increasing stress, persecution, Christian逼迫 in Poland and Communist Burma are under increasing pressure and surveillance. The Soviets increasingly are using incarceration in mental institutions for those who are followers of Jesus. The forgotten Christians in these places of torture are subjected to all kinds of medical and pharmacologic experimentation. Basically it is not so much the Russian Jews who have been deprived of human rights as it is the Christians who continue to be the slaves of this satanic system and are still suffering beyond anything we can imagine. (CMF has been involved in trying to get Baptist minister George Vins, released from his Psychiatric Prison so he can come to the free world for needed medical treatment. To date our pleas have met with silence.)

In America we increasingly see the repression of vital Christianity in education, in politics, in the Law and in Medicine. America is a Christian nation in theory but not in practice. As concern and confusion increase we must again look to the God of Israel for His answers through His Word. In Paul's writings concerning the last days he instructs Timothy to "continue to hold to the things that you have learned." He then says that Timothy has known the sacred writings from childhood--writings which instruct concerning understanding of salvation which comes through faith in Christ Jesus. Paul concludes, "Every Scripture is God-breathed--and profitable for instruction, reproof, and conviction of sin, for reproof and correction of sin, for correction of error, and discipline in obedience and for training in righteousness." (II Tim. 3:16)

The answer to the question, "What shall we do?"--must remain as stated in the Sacred Writings--We must repent, we must change our inner man to meet God's will and we must receive The Holy Spirit who alone can truly teach us God's Holy Word. Somehow I must believe that the baptism spoken of in Acts 2:38 and in Acts 16:33 is not water baptism but the baptism promised by Jesus in Acts 1:5 (the baptism of His Holy Spirit). When Christians begin again to follow Jesus and to receive and be led by His Holy Spirit, answers to every question of life will immediately be given. We receive inner peace and true healing which only can be achieved through being filled with and controlled by the Holy Ghost. In recent times here at Christian Medical Foundation we have truly been fed and sustained by God's Anointed Word. In time to come Christians will again begin to rely more and more on the Scriptures for instruction and direction. When one begins to do this he loses apprehension and fear, confusion leaves the mind and great new strength for each day is miraculously given. Praise be to God that we do not have to rely upon our own intelligence and resources. He alone is sufficient. "He is able to do super-abundantly, far over and above all that we dare to ask or think." (Ephesians 3:20). WSR
