"WHAT THINK YE OF CHRIST" Matthew 22:42

by William Standish Reed, M.D., M.S., Founder and President of CMF

In a day of skepticism and doubt, modern man continues to be faced with the profound and recurrent question, "What think ye of Christ?". Jesus asked this question of the Pharisees and earlier had asked his disciples, "Who do you say that I am?" Eventually in the course of each man's life the question is asked of him. If not asked by someone other than himself the query recurs in one's own thoughts. The day will dawn in every man's life when the question receives a clear and unequivocal answer.

For me, one day kneeling at the communion rail at St. Andrews Church in Ann Arbor, I heard our priest, Henry Lewis say, "The Body of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was given for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life. Take and eat this in remembrance that Christ died for thee, and feed on Him in thy heart by faith with thanksgiving." Then as we were given the cup of wine, "The blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, which was shed for thee, preserve thy body and soul unto everlasting life. Drink this in remembrance that Christ's blood was shed for thee, and be thankful." In those moments of true communion the question of what I thought of Christ was forever answered. He was, I truly knew, my Savior who had died for me and given His wondrous life that I might live and have eternal life. Christ died for me! Christ's blood was shed for me! My spirit anointed and blessed by the Holy Spirit had taken precedence over my carnal mind and the tendency to be beset by soulish questionings was forever put to rest.

From the Sunday bulletin of St. Stephen's Presbyterian Church in Sydney, Australia, I read this beautiful poem:

"How through this sacrament of simple things the great God burns His way. I know not -- He is there. The silent air is pulsing with the presence of His Grace. Almost I feel a face bend o'er me as I kneel. The Word takes flesh and dwells with men and once again dim eyes may see His gentle glory shine. The glory of humility which in creation stoops to raise, through times eternity of days our weakness to His strength. The life divine in common wine..."

Recently I found similar beautiful words of discovery in the writings of Francis Quarles (1592-1644)

"Nor time, nor place, nor chance, nor death can bow my least desires unto the least remove; He's firmly mine by oath; I His by vow; He's mine by faith; and I am His by love; He's mine by water; I am His by wine; Thus I my Best-Beloved's am; Thus He is mine.

He is my altar; I His holy place; I am His guest; He my living food; I'm His by penitence; He is mine by Grace; I'm His by purchase; He is mine, by blood; He's my supporting elm; and I His vine; Thus I my Best-Beloved's am; Thus He is mine."

Carroll Sumcox in a recent letter quoted:

"Who worship Christ in bread and wine and kneels before the High and Pure, meets Him again in street and mine and in the faces of the poor."

As our CMF healing team leaves again for a medical-surgical mission to Guatemala we pray that as we see Jesus in the faces of the poor and those in such high degrees of want, they will see the healing Christ in each of us and feel His healing love in our hands and hearts extended. May those to whom we minister find the answer to their need and their questionings and hopes in Jesus Christ through healing physicians and nurses. May we reflect "Christ in you the hope of glory" (Col. 1:27).

Dear Friends of the Littlest Angel,

Spring is a beautiful time of the year in Florida and with Easter on our doorstep the Littlest Angel reminds one of a large Easter basket with all kinds of surprises for everyone. We wish you could be here to enjoy it with us.

The Lord Jesus has really blessed the shop since before Christmas. Many interesting people from the Bay Community have stopped in to browse. The word is out that we have "beautiful," lovely angels, gifts, and books and each day brings many new customers and many, many people with needs. The opportunity to minister to broken hearts and lives is here everyday. One lovely girl commented while walking around the shop, "Oh I like it here, it feels so good."

It is a great joy to create a sanctuary for Him.

We continue our conversion to computer as we enter our inventory, a tremendous undertaking for someone who is supposed to be retired and has never worked on computers. I feel as if my mind is stretched as far as it can stretch, but then comes a new day and a new strength. We will make it!

I would like to thank each one of you who so graciously contributed to the new computer with your gifts of $100.00. Also, I hope that you are pleased with your angel "thank you" token.

The shop, which was created for CMF to help in its running expenses, has been a gift of love since its inception.

The renovation project four years ago was a wonderful success and was totally paid for by the (Angels), Auxiliary of CMF. Everyone who was part of the renovation project was sent a CMF stained glass angel. Now, like frosting on the cake, the computer project will complete what was started four years ago.

Please join us in being a part by sending for your stained glass angel today.

Love,

Kay
