Christian Medical Foundation is in the forefront of the great movement in the U.S.A. to consider spirituality in the treatment of the sick. We have been doing this for thirty-five years. We give the Lord Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit great thanksgiving for showing us the truth of triune man and the healing power of the Spirit in spiritual man, when such thought was not fashionable nor accepted. CMF ideas and physicians were the impetus of the City of Faith Hospital and the ORU Medical School. Thanks be to God that Oral Roberts attempted the great vision even though it failed through lack of concerted Christian support. Today it would succeed. The seeds sown in the experiment, as well as our CMF experiment in Medford, are producing the 100 fold blessings of Mark 4:20.

Thanksgiving 1996 is a happy, joyous time for us here at CMF and in the whole family. Rita is doing great things in her ministry as is Brother Bob in laser dentistry. Georgia is enjoying retirement and being a happy grandmother. Kay and I are busy as ever, and you will find us at Thanksgiving time at ECCO, Oakhurst near Yosemite again. We'll have a healing conference and then a week of rest and creativity in a beautiful Episcopal conference center. When we get back we'll be going to Auburn University to speak to Christian students.

We were just at Hastings on the Hudson at the Newington Cropsey Foundation Center to speak on Spiritual healing. What a beautiful place and what a blessing. Granddaughter Tawny, with George and Barbara Kaufman, drove me there. Hallelujah! Thanks be to God for His unspeakable gift. The gift of the Messiah, the Gift of His love and provision. The gift of His wondrous healing virtue.

Thank you, dear friends, for your support to CMF in 1996. Your year-end gift for tax purposes should be sent one day soon. As usual the financial support of the Foundation is like manna. It comes day by day, greatly needed, taking care of our necessities. For this, dear friends, we thank you and our Heavenly Father.

Thanksgiving is actually more than giving thanks to God for His wonderful love and provision. It is adoration to the point of being almost overcome by the wonder of His amazing grace and care. Here in America our people should be the most thankful and adoring to God of all the people of the world. God has given us this great land with all of its resources and beauty. Every part of America is beautiful. As Kay and I viewed Yosemite last year we were amazed at the grandeur of Vernal Falls, Bridal veil, and the Alpenglow of the Half Dome. It was the same in Hawaii, along the Oregon Shore, at the top of Grandfather mountain in New Hampshire, or just standing on the shores of Tampa's Hillsborough River. There is so much to be thankful for.

Our family survived World War I and II and the Vietnam War. Tim was lost serving in the Navy, so one son was given as all other family men were offered. No one avoided serving God and country. For this we give thanks. Also God has given our family great blessings even though one hundred years ago, things were difficult. We are veterans, ministers, priests, writers, poets, musicians, lawyers, doctors, and Godly people. The grandchildren (all girls) are a CPA, a nurse, an exercise physiologist, two teachers (in process), two successful businesswomen, one college freshman, one dear teenager en route, and an almost 4 years old angel. The blessings continue. Thanks be to God.
Dear Friends of the Littlest Angel,

Thanksgiving Blessings are wished for all our friends of the Littlest Angel. Bob and I send warmest greetings for the Holiday Season. May it be one of Peace and Joy for you and your family.

Thanksgiving and Christmas are a time of great preparation in our families and homes. A time of expectation, a time of doing, and a time of feeling.

The Littlest Angel has completed its preparation for the Season and is overflowing with the beauty of Christmas. We have created many ways to turn our homes into that very special place for a very special Advent.

The Book Nook has books for the entire family. Reading is a wonderful way to make your family stronger. Come and browse. There are special books for each member of your family that make wonderful gifts.

Angels, of course, are threaded everywhere throughout the Shop, "representing" the caring of our Lord with these special messengers. How awesome to know the "real" messengers are totally under His direction and authority to aid and help us on life’s pathway.

The Littlest Angel has that special gift for that special person, and we would love to help you select your shopping needs, whether that be petpourri, jewelry, flop eared rabbits, tree ornaments, Nativity figures, etc., etc. I’m sure we have it.

Thank you everyone for your help in giving the Littlest Angel a "face lift" this summer.

He has given so much to each one of us. At this Thanksgiving Day, help us to have grateful hearts.

With much love and appreciation for all our friends. Kay
