Dear Friends of Christian Medical Foundation,

"Let it be the inward adorning and beauty of the hidden person of the heart, with the incorruptible and unfading charm of a gentle and peaceful spirit, which is not anxious or wrought up but is very precious in the sight of God." 1 Peter 3:4 Amplified Bible

Wouldn't it be interesting to have some sort of new MRI ultrasound device, which would allow us to see the status of our "hidden person of the heart"? Would it be lovely, inward adorning, and beautiful? Would it be incorruptible and possessing of unfading charm, coming from a gentle and peaceful spirit, not anxious or upset? Such adornment is precious to God as He views our true and real person at Christmas.

So we take great pains, especially at Christmas, to beautify and glorify our physical being. Most often in this regard, we do a pretty good job bringing forth compliments from wife and daughters. I wonder what our loved ones would think if they could see beyond our personage and view the hidden person of our heart? Would it not be a beautiful Christmas prayer to ask God to make the hidden person of our hearts truly loving and admirable this year?

The sweet angelic beings who came to our house on All Hollows Eve truly were so lovely and so inspiring we thanked them all for coming to our home and blessing it and also blessing us. One darling girl came as an exotic angel. Then there were two little babies in arms, sweet little cherubs. They truly were little servants of Jesus, who came to lighten our burdens and to illustrate for us God's wonderful love and care.

So let us be truly holy and loving in all the coming holy days as we come toward a truly, holy Christmastide.

I ask God to bless you and your family at this Blessed Christmas Season and may you have a wonderful New Year. As Tiny Tim said in the Christmas Carol, "God bless you everyone!"

CONCERNING CMF FINANCES

To our dear friends of Christian Medical Foundation, I want to thank for the many beautiful and inspiring cards with such wonderful messages. Thank you also for the many generous gifts in memory of my darling Kay, who went to be with the Lord on May 30. How we love and miss her every day. God bless you all for your kindness and love.

As we look toward 2006, please help CMF that we may start the year with all expenses paid. We also need to paint our building in the 2006 year. Please consider giving a year-end gift. We thank you for your faithfulness.

Dr. Bill Reed

God grant you the light in Christmas, which is faith;
The warmth of Christmas, which is love;
The radiance of Christmas, which is purity;
The righteousness of Christmas, which is justice;
The belief in Christmas, which is truth;
The all of Christmas, which is Christ.
