“When Christ, Who is you life, appears, then you also will appear with Him in [the splendor of His] glory.

Colossians 3:4

“And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; and death shall be no more, neither shall there be anguish (sorrow or mourning) nor grief nor pain anymore, for the old conditions and the former order of things have passed away.

And He Who is seated on the throne said, See! I make all things new.” Revelation 21:4, 5

On Easter morning, our church was full to overflowing. It was the same all over the Western world. The people of God, the Body of Christ, had left the world system and come home to the Savior to worship Him and to again feel His glorious presence.

I did not have a hymnal or prayer book so when we sang I sang in the Spirit. As my heart soared, I sensed that we were attended by the whole company of heaven.

As I sat there, my entire life went before me. When my darling Kay departed for her heavenly home, I said to God, “Lord, please take me with her right now if possible.” In my heart I heard, “Bill, I'm not through with you yet!”

Christ is my life. While I am on this earth, my desire is to share Him and serve Him along side those of us who stand against the creeping secular, agnostic atheism coming into our homes and lives day by day.

Why does modern man not enter in?
It has been written, “Men and women of all climes and races are still in bondage to material sense, ignorant how to obtain their freedom.” In going in the direction of the world and thus proclaiming personal freedom, man enters into the bondage of the god of this world (II Corinthians 4:4), and he thus rejects the true giver of life and liberty, Jesus Christ.

We stand on the threshold of hope. The doorway is open. Will we walk through? Jesus is Himself the doorway to eternal life, to heaven on earth, and heaven to come. Solzhenitsyn defined the doorway as a filter, which every person must pass through. In going through, our “sinful bodies are made clean by His body and our souls are cleansed through His most precious blood, that we may forever live in Him and He in us.” We go over the threshold becoming new creations in Christ, “all the old things have passed away, all things are become new.”

One cannot go through carrying burdens, resentments, anger, unforgiveness, or even self-deprecation. All of the characteristics of the world life must be gone. Mankind stands today in real truth at the threshold of hope and true freedom.

A Tribute To Our Mother
Kay

Being your daughter taught me so much over the years, and I'll always remember how you encouraged me to be the best I could be. You helped me to believe in myself and accomplish more than I ever thought possible. I want you to know that your own life was the best example I could have. I would not wish you back, because I know the Lord needed you to take your place in His wonderful kingdom.

If anyone should say that I'm just like my mother, it would make me very proud and happy, because I think you are one of the most wonderful people in this world! I see you in my eyes, I hear you in my voice when I speak, and feel you always, within my heart. I love knowing that you are such a part of me, and thank you for all that you are and all that I am because of you. You are my best friend and I will miss you terribly until I see you with great joy on the other side.

Love, your daughter Lyn

You gave me life.
You showed me love.
You gave me hope when I had none.
You comforted me when things went wrong.
You made me laugh.
You taught me scripture and how to apply it to my life.

You let me go,
And became my friend.
I love you mom.

You daughtr, Sue

What Is A Mother?
G. Newell-Lovejoy

God thought to give the sweetest thing,
In His allmighty power to earth.
And deeply pondering what it should be,
One hour in fondest joy
and love of heart,
Outweighing every other,
He moved the gates of heaven apart,
And gave to earth a mother!
