In a dream, I saw an elderly, strong man dressed in a long white lab coat, dancing across the meadow adjacent to Lago dela Pas near the CMF Center. He was dancing, singing, and praising. This is what he sang:

"Gracias Senor por su Vida Maravilla."

Translation:

Gracias, Gracias, Senor."

As he headed toward the great iron gates, he reminded me of David dancing in his ephod behind the Ark of the Covenant. He really looked younger the more he danced and praised the Lord Jesus. How could he leap so high and far? How could he be so joyous and behave with such happy abandon?

"Kings of the earth and all people, princes and all judges of the earth, both boys and maidens, old men and young men, let them praise the Name of the Lord, for His Name alone is excellent; His glory is on earth and in Heaven. Praise Him with the timbrel and dance. Praise the Lord." (Psalm 148:11-13, Psalm 150:4)
